REF: DPW / 018 / 2008 Dated : 07-Oct-2008

Import Cargo with NIL MARK

It has been frequently observed that several packages land in Jebel Ali port without 'Marks & Numbers', with improper 'Marks & Numbers' or where 'Marks and Numbers' exist but do not tally with the manifest.

Such packages remain unclaimed at the port until the shipping agent receives accurate information from the load port which can take months. These packages incur significant storage charges and cause operational difficulties in the yards. Often, packages remain unclaimed for an extended duration and are eventually auctioned by Ports and Customs.

In order to avoid difficulties all Shipping Agents are kindly requested to not accept "NIL MARK" and adversely packed cargoes at load ports. Effective 1st of December 2008, DP World will not allow any package without 'Marks & Numbers' or with wrong 'Marks & Numbers' to be discharged in Jebel Ali. All 'Marks & Numbers' should be as per the manifest.

All Shipping Agents and Traders are advised to strictly abide with above instructions as any package without 'Marks & Numbers' will not be received in port premises.

We look forward to your kind cooperation and support in enabling us to streamline our yard operation.
