Transshipment and Local Empty Containers

Dear Customers,

In order to differentiate between Local and Transshipment empty containers, we are pleased to advise all Shipping Lines and Agents that following procedure will be implemented effective 1st of May 2009.

For Local Empties ex Vessel:

In the discharge list (DPW Proprietary format and COPRAR) "Next Port of Discharge (NPOD)" should be mentioned as "JEA".

For Transshipment Empties:

In the discharge list (DPW Proprietary format and COPRAR) "Next Port of Discharge (NPOD)" should either be blank, "OPT" or any other valid port code except "JEA".

Hence any empty container ex vessel without "JEA" as NPOD will be considered as transshipment empty. The THC will be raised accordingly in the discharge and load invoices.

Note: All containers discharged till 30th of April 2009, will be considered as T/S empties.

If any Transshipment empty container needs to be released to town then Shipping Agent should request for status change prior to delivery. In such cases FIFO rule will not be followed and following charges shall apply as per the existing Tariff Terms:

- i) Difference of THC for T/S and local empty
- ii) Change of Designation (Aed 65/- per container) as per Tariff item 521.1a.

We appreciate your adherence to aforementioned procedures thereby enabling us to streamline our processes for mutual benefits.
